

Newsletter – ASAP Stepping Stones – May 2022

Coming May we will start a new ASAP (after school activity programme) course. This newsletter will explain how ASAP works, how registration is done and what activities we will offer.

ASAP coordinator

Hi! Before we continue I would like to give a short introduction for the people who don't know me. My name is Hanneke Ypma. I started working as a teacher/coordinator at BSO Stepping Stones (after school care) in 2017. Last September I joined the school team and part of my job there is to organize the ASAP for the children from Stepping Stones.

I've contacted a few enthusiastic teachers who are looking forward to providing an interesting, educational and fun workshop for your child. If you're curious as to what workshops we offer coming ASAP course then don't hesitate to read on.

Do you have a question or an idea/request for a new course? Don't hesitate to mail, call or contact me at school!

How does ASAP work

The activities are organized a few times a year, in blocks lasting about 6-10 weeks. The activities are accessible to all children from BSO and TSO Stepping Stones. The activities will take place in a classroom or gym at the school and are facilitated by adept teachers.

Before a new NSA block starts there will be a registration round. You have to register for an entire block, registration for single lessons isn't possible.

If your son/daughter already attends BSO on the day of one of the after-school activities you will receive a 30% discount on the registration fee. The BSO teachers will take care of the supervision during relocation between the activities and the BSO.

How to register

This link will bring you to the ASAP registration page. You can register your child until the 11th of May. Register quickly because places are limited.

All children that have been placed will receive a message. Children that could not be placed will receive a message that they have been put on a waiting list which will give them priority next time.

A few days before the start of the first lesson you will receive a message with more practical information.
